

Trinity Capital Provides K2view with $15 Million to Meet Surging Demand for Agentic AI Data Infrastructure

Jun 23, 2025

PHOENIX, June 23, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Trinity Capital Inc. (Nasdaq: TRIN) ("Trinity Capital"), a leading alternative asset manager, today announced the commitment of $15 million in growth capital to K2view, an enterprise data management innovator powering operational data products for generative AI.

Founded in 2009, K2view helps global enterprises – including brands in financial services, telecom, healthcare, and retail – unify fragmented data across systems to deliver secure, real-time data products at scale. The K2view Data Product Platform supports a growing number of operational use cases, including data integration and cloud migration, x360, test data management, synthetic data generation, and enterprise data for agentic AI.

"K2view is at the forefront of solving a critical bottleneck in the enterprise adoption of generative AI," said Jack McNamara, Director of Tech Lending at Trinity Capital. "The company's differentiated approach to data products is delivering transformative results for Fortune 1000 customers, and we're excited to support their next stage of growth."

The company's platform is actively powering AI-assisted customer experiences for prominent telecom operators. This capital will accelerate K2view's growth and innovation in the rapidly evolving space of enterprise data infrastructure for generative and agentic AI.

"We're thrilled to partner with Trinity Capital as we continue our mission to unlock the power of enterprise data for agentic AI," said Ronen Schwartz, CEO of K2view. "This growth capital will allow us to accelerate product innovation, scale go-to-market initiatives, and help more organizations deploy fast, secure, and contextualized AI applications."
